

EUN AND THE EQNET PROJECT PRESENT:

COPYRIGHT / COPYWRONG ARE YOU A PIRATE?

THIS MEETING AIMS AT ANSWERING ALL YOUR QUESTIONS ON COPYRIGHT AND CREATIVE COMMONS. WE WOULD LIKE TO TEST YOUR KNOWLEDGE ON THIS ISSUE . PLEASE FILL IN THIS QUESTIONNAIRE AND BRING IT WITH YOU TO THE EVENT.

1. Copyright status is only granted to well-known authors and filmmakers?

Yes

No

2. Maité forgot to register her screenplay before she sent it to her agent for review, she is no longer eligible to copyright it.

True

False

3. Mathilde downloaded photos from Flickr.com's Creative Commons (CC) pool. She follows the rules of the specific CC licence and uses them in her digital video about ICT education in schools. That's okay.

True

False

4. Claire, a teacher from the eTwinning network, downloads some photos she found on the web for use on her eTwinning project website. These images are stated to be owned by Getty images. As this is for education purposes, Claire thinks that this is okay.

I Agree

I disagree

Reason:

.....

.....

.....

5. Annick, a contestant in the U4 Energy competition, wants to jazz up her entry by using a Michael Jackson song as a backing for her video entry. As this is for educational use, she thinks that this is okay. True or False?

True

False

6. Diane reads an interesting article about the making of the film of the Titanic and wants to use a short quote in her school cinema review. That's copyright infringement.

True

False

7. Jan downloads a lesson plan and worksheets from a website where he is a registered user. Since he was free to download the resource he presumes that it is free of copyright and distributes copies he makes to all the teachers at his school. That's copyright infringement. True or false?

True

False